Accurate lighting is critical to the image system,
and improper lighting can cause various image problems.
For example, Blooming or hot spots can hide sensitive image information such as shadowing. In addition, shadowing can cause incorrect edge calculations when measuring,
leading to inaccurate measurements.

MILKY WAY SERIES

The atmosphere or brightness of the room varies greatly depending on what kind of light the space is finished with. If you want to make the room soft and comfortable, spread the light evenly on the floor, walls, and ceiling. If you want a stable atmosphere, it is effective to direct the light on the floor and walls, and if you want the room tolookspacious. Fluorescent lamps, such as midday sun light, are suitable for work areas such as study rooms and kitchens, and red incandescent lamps, such as sunsets, or light bulb fluorescent lamps are good for living rooms and bedrooms where you can relax your mind and body. Light bulb fluorescent lamps feel similar to incandescent lamps.

Accurate lighting is critical to the image system, and improper lighting can cause various image problems. For example, Blooming or hot spots can hide sensitive image information such as shadowing. In addition, shadowing can cause incorrect edge calculations when measuring, leading to inaccurate measurements.

CEILING FAN SERIES

Accurate lighting is critical to the image system,
and improper lighting can cause various image problems.
For example, Blooming or hot spots can hide sensitive image
information such as shadowing. In addition,

SUMMER SEASON

시계방향 회전으로
시원한 바람을
바닥으로 내려주는 역할

WINTER SEASON

시계반대 방향 회전으로
고온공기 층화를
제거하여 따뜻한 공기를

Whether You're Introverted or Extroverted
The lighting in your room is a type of sensory stimulation that influences your performance and mental state.
Well, not only does light affect your mood, but introverts and extroverts have different thresholds for sensory stimulation.
If you are not sure about what style best fits your space,
we have lighting designers and specialists that will advise you.

OUTDOOR LIGHT

Whether You're Introverted or Extroverted:
The lighting in your room is a type of sensory stimulation
that influences your performance and mental state.
Well, not only does light affect your mood, but introverts
and extroverts have different thresholds for sensory stimulation.
If you are not sure about what style best fits your space,
we have lighting designers and specialists that will advise you.

Whether You're Introverted or Extroverted:
The lighting in your room is a type of sensory stimulation
that influences your performance and mental state.
Well, not only does light affect your mood, but introverts
and extroverts have different thresholds for sensory stimulation.
If you are not sure about what style best fits your space,
we have lighting designers and specialists that will advise you.
